Bethel International Church

RE: Pastoral Counselor

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Pastoral Counselor position at Bethel International Church. With a background as a Management Trainee and a strong foundation in social media, reporting, and quality control, I am eager to contribute to your mission of spiritual leadership and community engagement.

My investigative working style has equipped me with critical thinking skills that allow me to approach challenges thoughtfully. I believe this is very good for a clear vision that aligns with your church's mission while overseeing initiatives. My experience in teamwork and leadership positions has prepared me well for mentoring other pastors and staff members, an environment where collaboration thrives.

Having been impacted by the pandemic on a personal level, I have taken this time to reflect on my calling within the community. I am passionate about creating meaningful connections within the congregation and enhancing operational excellence at Bethel International Church.

As you can see in my resume, I have a gap in my employment history due to a COVID-19 infection. Having made a full recovery and tested negative for the virus, I'm ready to return to the workforce.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my unique strengths in critical thinking, teamwork, and leadership into this role. Thank you for considering my application; I look forward to discussing how I can contribute positively to your church's vision.

Sincerely,
Sefton Fowler
